I reminded the detained person of their continuing right to obtain free and independent legal advice and they have Christian Bridge as their solicitor. Continued detention is authorised, as there are reasonable grounds to believe that it is necessary in order to obtain evidence by questioning, to preserve evidence, to secure evidence, to consider and to charge. The grounds are that the D/P has been arrested on suspicion of Theft, Yesterday at 2pm, the suspect has topped up an electric card in a shop yesterday and left without paying, Yesterday at 2pm, the suspect has topped up an electric card in a shop yesterday and left without paying. The D/P will be interviewed to allow them to give their version of events should they so wish. Following this, the Custody Sergeant will decide the best means of disposal. Having looked into the circumstances I am satisfied that officer enquiries are being conducted diligently and expeditiously. I am also satisfied there is insufficient grounds to charge at this time. The detained person was informed of these reasons and had no representations to make and said they understood what was being said. I have reviewed the Risk Assessment and Care Plan for the DP and am satisfied that this has been adhered to and should continue without change. The detained person does not require an appropriate adult. The OIC did not inform the authorising officer of any documents or materials in their possession or control which appear to undermine the need to keep the suspect in custody.

30/07/2022 00:47	Free Text	Sgt 37 1892 DOVE	 Mental Health Act assessment  Mental Health Act assessment – Paul Warden AMHP, Dr's Oxberry and Penfold. Seen in assessment room at PIC. Both S12 Doctors present throughout. Michael appeared groomed and kempt in appearance. Michael engaged with us in a relaxed manner, with open body posture. Good levels of eye contact. Michael spoke fluently. His sentences were logical and goal focused. Recurring / repetitive themes that he kept referring to around Flagship ASB Officer [REDACTED] Michael believes that he saw [REDACTED] having sexual relations with a prostitute, and since then " [REDACTED] has made my life hell". Michael explained that he previously received a legal bundle with documentation within it of emails from [REDACTED] to third parties, from this he established that [REDACTED] had received email complaints from two of his neighbours. Michael appeared fixed on the above points, and stated that he has a 13gb file relating to them. Michael stated that he was not preoccupied throughout the day with thoughts around the above. He asserted that he finds enjoyment in life. He spoke with affection of his Parrot. He claimed that he maybe receiving a significant inheritance from his late Father who has died in recent times, and owned a farm in West Sussex. Michael did not appear depressed. He displayed humour, and his mood appeared reactive. He stated that he smokes 1/4 to half a gram of cannabis a day, he continues to receive medicinal cannabis via a private prescription from a Harley Street Dr. Michael denied hearing voices or other psychotic phenomena. Michael was keen to assert that he does not believe he is mentally unwell. He would like MH help, but only in the context of bolstering and supporting him in his case against Pete Sharples. His overall presentation appeared consistent with that previously reported by IDT, and issues referenced in Wedgwood discharge summary. It appears Michaels preoccupations around [REDACTED] have been in evidence for a number of years. Risk to self: No history of previous self harm or suicidal actions. Noted that in 2021 Michael had made threats to end his life. Current reports that Michael has threatened to end his life by hanging on 3/08 by hanging, and livestream it. Michael asserted that this was a statement that he had made to Flagship out of his frustration at his perception that he was not being listened to. He was clear that he would not act upon this. Risk to others: Flagship Housing have an injunction on Michael in relation to allegations around abuse/ threats to Flagship staff. Michael denied any thoughts or intent to harm others. Admission/ detention under MHA was not felt to be indicated currently. AMHP 30.07.22
