Dear Michael,

I refer to your recent application for housing with Clarion Housing for Roman Court, Burgess Hill, Mid Sussex, RH15 9BH.

Your housing application and supporting documents have been assessed and we are sorry to inform you that we are unable to consider your application any further at this time. Our reasons are outlined below:

Due to these reasons a decision has been made to reject your application. This decision is in line with Sections 6.2 of our Allocations Policy which states;

- You have been evicted or had a possession order (suspended or outright) or an injunction made against you in the past 5 years, for serious anti-social behaviour including harassment, intimidation or domestic violence and/or criminal or immoral behaviour while a tenant with your previous landlord.
- There is evidence of violence or threats of violence, harassment or intimidation towards a staff member or contractor of Clarion or any other social landlord in the past 5 years.

If you wish to apply for housing in the future we will consider a new application from you at that time. We will process a new housing application in line with our Allocations Policy at the time of the new application.

It is possible that your local authority and other Housing Associations in the area may be able to give you advice and assistance to apply for housing to them.

Yours sincerely,
Clarion Housing Group
