Dear Mr BURDETTE-DEAKIN

I write further to your recent admission and following conversation with the ward consultant. It was not felt that there was not an underlying Mental Illness which required support from secondary Mental Health Services. At the point of discharge, it was felt that you have the capacity to understand the potential consequences of some of your actions, behaviours which are not driven by any underlying mental illness.

It was also felt from the ward a view shared by the community team that your use of cannabis may have contributed to your presentation which brought you to the attention of Mental Health services, I believe that Dr Zapata as been in contact with the prescribing medic re these concerns.

Considering the above we have today discharged you back to the care of your GP, and trust that you have no concerns about this, given the views expressed on the ward.

Yours sincerely

Karen Webster
